

Array of arguments passed to script in PHP

$argv is an array of arguments passed to script in PHP, so you can know the parameters when user run the script. Followings are the example content of $argv

```
array(4) { [0]=>
    string(10) "script.php"
  [1]=>
    string(4) "arg1"
  [2]=>
    string(4) "arg2"
  [3]=>
    string(4) "arg3"
}
```